The funeral of Mrs. William Maine, which was held on Friday of last week at the Miner meeting house, was attended by her many friends in this neighborhood. Rev. E. P. Mathewson of Ashaway, pastor of the church here, of which she was a member, officiated. Mrs. Maine had been an invalid for a long time but bore her sufferings with much patience. She was devotedly cared for by her husband and daughters, with the assistance of a nurse.

Mrs. John Rae's sister. Miss Cortelyou, of Jersey City, is visiting Mrs. Henry Johnson.

Five of the horses of the 101d field artillery, Batter A. R. I. N. G., that stampeded in their corral near Charlestown during the thunder storm of Sunday night, were stopped by Willis E. Almy of the Robert P. Palmer farm. They were placed in the orchard south of the house, where they lay down utterly exhausted. About noon they were located by a squad sent out from camp in an automobile, and taken back to camp.
